

Please join us for this wonderful exhibition!!!

Do you really believe that?

Dates: January 22 - February 28

Opening Reception: January 22, 6 pm - 8 pm

Do you really believe that? is an exhibition celebrating the power of Abstract and Minimalist Art and honoring the legacy of the public contributions, scholarship, and teaching of Dr. Frances Colpitt. This exhibition was organized by UTSA and Texas Christian University. Colpitt (1952-2022) was a professor at UTSA 1990-2005 and Texas Christian University 2005-2021. She was enormously influential in Texas and nationally. Featured artists include: Terry Allen, Jesse Amado, Edith Baumann, Richie Budd, Jerry Cabrera, John Eden, Sharon Engelstein, Vernon Fisher, Tommy Fitzpatrick, Tommy Glassford, James Hayward, Felice Koenig, Casey Leone, Constance Lowe, John M. Miller, Yunhee Min, Aaron Parazette, John Pomara, Chuck Ramirez, Hector Ramirez, Susie Rosmarin, Chris Sauter, Cameron Schoepp, Hills Snyder, Terri Thornton, John Wilcox.

Location: UTSA Main Art Gallery

UTSA Main Art Gallery is located in the Art Building on UTSA's Main campus, 2.03.04.

Gallery Hours

Thursdays - Saturdays: 10 am until 3 pm and by appointment. (We are closed on major and university holidays.)